5. Updating these Terms

An update of the Terms may be necessary. In this respect, in the event of an update, you would also have to agree to the new conditions in order to continue using Social Activity Map.

Privacy

Your data will be used in the following ways.

Account data {email, name, rating, profile picture} is stored in a database.

Account data is visible to other users if they want to participate in an activity you have created.

Created activities have the following activity data: {activity name, creation date, activity date with time, current number of participants, maximum number of participants, duration, icon, coordinates, participants} and are saved in another database.

Expired activities are archived and consequently disappear from the map.

Your activities are visible to others on the activity data card.
